Educational Philosophy

Student Affairs prepares our students to be critically engaged, ethically driven, and socially just global citizens. This dynamic process requires collaboration with various stakeholders in pursuit of the academic mission where students seek a diversity of integrated experiences to help shape the future.

The critical components of this education include:

- Engagement in the co-curricular learning process
- Inclusive experiences that foster acceptance and holistic development
- Empowered leadership through the development of self with the proper environment, tools and resources