The Illinois Experience
Getting Involved
• Explore!

• The U of I is large, and there are many opportunities to take advantage of.

• You may be uncertain about what to do or where to go at first, but many other people will be uncertain too.
Asking Questions
• It is the culture in the United States to ask questions.
• The Counseling Center is a free service where you can talk about adjusting to life in the US.
• Professional staff members who speak Mandarin.
• There is always someone who is ready to help you.
Navigating Campus
• With over 46,000 students, plus faculty, staff, and visiting scholars, the University of Illinois campus is similar to a small city.

• It is also important to use similar level of awareness and precaution.
